The Complaint Process

Talk to us

Every patient has the right to make a complaint about the treatment or care they have received at Meon Health Practice.

We understand that we may not always get everything right and by telling us about the problem you have encountered, we will be able to improve our services and patient experience.

How to raise a concern or complaint

Most complaints can be resolved at a local level and can be made in the following ways:

1. Completing a complaints Form, available from reception
2. Completing a Feedback form on the website
3. By letter to Patient Services Manager c/o 102 Highlands, Fareham, PO15 6JF
4. By requesting a Telephone call from a Patient Service Manager

If for any reason you do not want to speak to a member of our staff, then you can request that NHS England investigates your complaint. They will contact us on your behalf:

NHS England

PO BOX 16738

REDDITCH

03003 112233

england.contactus@nhs.net

A complaint can be made verbally or in writing.

Time frames for complaints

The time constraint on bringing a complaint is 12 months from the occurrence giving rise to the complaint, or 12 months from the time you become aware of the matter about which you wish to complain. The complaints manager will respond to all complaints within three business days.

We will aim to investigate and provide you with the findings as soon as we can and will provide regular updates regarding the investigation of your complaint.

Investigating complaints

Meon Health Practice will investigate all complaints effectively and in conjunction with extant legislation and guidance.

Confidentiality

Meon Health Practice will ensure that all complaints are investigated with the utmost confidentiality and any documents are held separately from the patient's healthcare record.

Third party complaints

Meon Health Practice allows a third party to make a complaint on behalf of a patient. The patient must provide consent for them to do so. A Third Party Patient Complaint Form is available from reception.

Final response

Meon Health Practice will issue a final formal response to all complainants which will provide full details and the outcome of the complaint. Further information is detailed in our practice policy.
